RICE COUNTY 4-H FAIR
Public Revue – July 21, 7:00 P.M.
Extension Building

PUBLIC FASHION REVUE ENTRY

Clothing Construction Class No. OR Clothes Strategy or Clothing Carousel Class No. AND Class Name
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Name
City_________________________Age as of January 1
Parents/Guardians
4-H Club
4-H Projects
____________________________________________________________________________________

School and Grade School and Grade this Fall
Hobbies and Activities
____________________________________________________________________________________

Please write a description of the garment and accessories as you want it read at the Public Fashion Revue.
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

PLEASE BRING COMPLETED TO THE JUDGING

Description of the garment you wish to model should be turned into the Extension Office with Fair pre-entries or brought, completed and given to the Fashion Show Committee on JULY 16th. NO EXTENSIONS GRANTED.